I'm not sure what I'm looking for at EY US. I need more information. What are my next steps?

EY US offers many exciting career opportunities for students, including internships, entry-level jobs and student programs. Our student careers website is a great way to learn more about what you can do at EY US, what it's like to work with us and explore our opportunities. You can also hear directly from EY professionals through our live virtual information sessions on EY Events Central. Learn more and start exploring at ey.com/us/students.

Hiring process for campus candidates

After you apply on the EY student job board, we'll review your application, résumé and qualifications. Students are selected for interviews based on academic background, extracurricular activities and work experience. If you are selected, you'll be invited to participate in the interview process, which in most cases is virtual. This is a great way for us to get to know you, understand your career interests and qualifications, and evaluate your potential role at EY US. A decision is usually made within a few weeks of the final interview. We know that waiting to hear back can be tough – so we will let you know as soon as we can. Our recruiters and professionals will stay in touch with you throughout the recruiting process, and we ask that you do the same. We welcome you to ask questions, request additional information or let us know if you have received another offer.
